

Help your child or grandchild do something totally different this summer.

What was it like to be a kid in the 18th century backcountry? Would you be a scholar, farmer, or an apprentice to a craftsman? Would summer be a time of freedom from school and work or "same old same old"? Spend five days with the Cobb family, their friends and neighbors at Rocky Mount Historic Site and learn.

The theme for the Summer Apprentice Day Camp this year is "Trades and Professions." You'll "apprentice" in blacksmithing, medicine or other professions, cook, garden and participate in crafts and activities reflecting the life of men, women and children in 18th century Tennessee.

As a large part of your experience is the clothing you wear, you will be loaned appropriate clothing for someone your own age living in the late 1700s. Being in "period clothing" gives you a whole new viewpoint on living in another time.

Parents and grandparents, you can give the children in your life a week of life-long memories and, maybe, a new-found talent.

The cost for this enrichment program is $90.00 for members of the Rocky Mount Historical Association and $125.00 for non-members (registration fee includes a Family Membership; each additional child is $90.00) Camp hours are 9 a.m. to 3 p.m. Monday through Friday.
